Arlington Travel Advisory

Arlington is located about 8 miles northwest of Boston. It may take from 20 minutes to 30 minutes via state Highway to the Boston's Logan Airport depending on traffic. Via Broadway it may take 25 minutes to 35 minutes depending on traffic, so please allow plenty of time to make sure you will not be late for your flight.

Arlington, MA, of Middlesex county, is 2 miles West of Medford, MA (center to center) and 6 miles NorthWest of Boston, MA. Bby the Mystic River and the Mystic Lakes, Arlington has a large number of sites included in the List of Registered Historic Places. This modern community has kept its historic small town appeal. Residents have easy access to Boston and Cambridge with the commuter rail and Red Line subway which are popular with commuters.

The Town of Arlington was settled by European colonists in 1635 as a village within the boundaries of Cambridge, Massachusetts. A larger area, including land that was later to become the town of Belmont, and outwards to the shore of the Mystic River, which had previously been part of Charlestown, was incorporated on February 27, 1807 as West Cambridge. In 1867, the town was named in honor of those buried in Arlington National Cemetery; the name was changed on April 30.
