Cochituate Travel Advisory

Cochituate is located about 20 miles West of Boston's Logan Airport and it may take from 26 minutes to 28 minutes via Interstate 90 East Highway to the Boston's Logan Airport depending on traffic. Via MA-30 W and I-90 East Highway it may take 27 minutes to 30 minutes depending on traffic. Please allow plenty of time to make sure you will not be late for your flight.

Cochituate is a census-designated place (CDP) in the town of Wayland in Middlesex County, MA.

It is home to Lake Cochituate and Dudley Pondm which are used by residents year round; in the summer for boating and fishing, and in the winter for ice fishing. Lake Cochituate, which consists of four ponds connected by shallow, narrow waterways, is located in Natick, Framingham, and Wayland, 16 miles west of Boston, lying in the Sudbury River Basin. Cochituate means "swift river" in the Algonquin language and refers to Cochituate Brook, which connects the lake to the Sudbury River.
