Gloucester Travel Advisory

Gloucester is located about 33 miles North East of Boston's Logan Airport and it may take from 41 minutes to 43 minutes via MA Route-128 South than U.S Route 1 South Highway to the Boston's Logan Airport depending on traffic. Via MA Route-128 than Interstate-93 South Highway it may take 45 minutes to 50 minutes depending on traffic. Please allow plenty of time to make sure you will not be late for your flight.

Gloucester, MA, in Essex county, is 18 miles NE of Lynn, MA and 27 miles NE of Boston, making it part of the Boston metropolitan area.

Gloucester was founded by the Dorchester Company and was chartered in 1623 by James I. The first settlers landed at Half Moon Beach and settled nearby, but abandoned the settlement in 1626. Its residents moved to Naumkeag, present day Salem, Massachusetts, and later on, the area was resettled. Gloucester was initially incorporated in 1642, named after the great Cathedral City in Southwest England, and originally included the town of Rockport. However, the village was separated on February 27, 1840. The city of Gloucester was incorporated in 1873.
